

GIFFNOCK NORTH FIVE-A-SIDE EVENT

Guinness-sponsored Giffnock North five-a-side tournament will be held on Friday, March 26, in the Kelvin Hall.

Eight amateur teams, including Giffnock North, Dumbarton (year's winners), and P.O. Telephones will compete for "Giffnock Shield."

Other teams include Rangers, Celtic, Queen's Park, Clydebank, Motherwell, Hamilton, Hearts and the youth team will play exhibition tournament.

This is the third time the event has been held. Giffnock North were given priority in 1971 and, feeling it merited a more serious competition than a local event, decided to hold a five-a-side tournament.

Guinness agreed to sponsor the event and it was held in Paisley Ice Rink. Near the tournament to Kelvin Hall where Dumbarton won the amateur competition and St. Mirren the senior one.

Guinness generously offered to sponsor the event again this year.

Profit from the evening will be divided partly among the amateur teams and partly to help raise funds for the development of the sports ground at Giffnock.

The ties will be controlled by three S.F.A. referees, all of whom have played for Giffnock North — Mr I. D. M. Foot, Mr Tom Gray and Mr Ian Barber.

Tickets for what will be a very enjoyable evening are on sale locally at the Sports Centre, 204 Fenwick Road, Giffnock, price 50p; 35p; and 25p.

MESSAGE FILM TO BROADEN THE MIND

A GERMAN film, described by one critic as "mock-medical Kraut crudity," will be shown soon at the Odeon Film Centre, Renfield street.

My impression of "The Unsatisfied Virgins"—an unsatisfactory choice of titles, by the way—a bit different. In fact I would make it obligatory viewing for all teenagers—for the narrow as well as the broadminded.

Admittedly there are a maximum of bare bodies in the film. But, although this aspect may appeal to some regular "X" cinemagoers, to my mind it doesn't detract from what is a well made film on a very important subject.

Briefly, it gives a gynaecologist's account of the vulnerability of teenage girls and the dangerous roads they tread prior to visiting his surgery with psychological as well as physical problems. The quality of production lifts this from a documentary on the vicissitudes of our promiscuous society into a first-class film with a message for the young—as well as for their parents.

"The Ragman's Daughter," showing this week at Odeon 1, is a sometimes exciting, often sad tale of Tony (Patrick O'Connell), a working class, middle-aged man, sacked for stealing a cheese—of all things from the warehouse where he works, who lets his memories drift back to a youthful romance.

Simon Rouse plays Tony when he was a teenage layabout surviving on petty larceny. He is joined—for kicks—in his thieving exploits by the pretty blonde daughter (played by Victoria Tennant) of a wealthy scrap dealer.

Their friendship blossoms as they raid factory, shops and houses with complete impartiality, sharing their booty and their love.

FF THE RECORD and play their first major gig at the Rainbow on Friday. Watch a beautiful single "If you gotta break heart," by John Fyfe on Tuesday. Ludicrous — CBS staff produced a special British of Dr Hook's Beeb single as a promotion disc. New title of the disc "O'Jays single seems appropriate. New Arcade album worth every penny 2.99 asking price. And are on about oldies, where
